

41th Annual Conference of the
International Association of Labour History Institutions (IALHI)
1- 4 September 2010
International Institute of Social History (Amsterdam)

DRAFT PROGRAMME

Wednesday 1 September

Afternoon meeting Co-ordination committee
16.00 - 18.00 Reception and registration of the participants
Guided tour of the IISH (optional)

Thursday 2 September

09.30 - 10.00 Coffee; Registration of the participants unable to attend on Wednesday
10.00 - 11.00 General Assembly IALHI
11.00 - 12.30 First session of presentation of IALHI members' projects

12.30 - 14.00 Lunch

14.00 - 15.30 Second session of presentation of IALHI members' projects
16.00 - 18.30 Walking tour of Working class history Amsterdam (optional)

19.00 Dinner at Amsterdam restaurant

Friday 3 September

09.30 - 10.00 Coffee
10.00 – 12.30 Presentations and discussion on the organisation of collection departments.

12.30 - 14.00 Lunch

14.00 – 17.00 Presentations and discussion on the challenges of Global labour history

17.00 Drinks and dinner at the IISH

Saturday 4 September

9.00 – 13.00 Excursion and guided visit to the Zaanse Schans. The Zaan area in the 17th century was the heart of the Dutch industrial sector, with over 1000 windmills. It remained a core area of Dutch industry and the Dutch labour movement until well into the 20th century. <http://www.holland.com/global/thingstodo/typical/mills/zaanseschans.jsp>